PRESS RELEASE - OCTOBER 2023

Geneva Airpark's results for the first nine months of 2023 are very positive, showing that the Covid crisis is just a bad memory for business aviation

Daily hosting for the first 9 months 2023

Between January and the end of September 2023, Geneva Airpark welcomed 121 aircraft under the Daily formula, 16 more than in 2022. The last time the infrastructure recorded a similar figure was back in 2015 for the whole year. Overall, for the year 2023 as a whole, Geneva Airpark anticipates an increase of 43% in Daily packages compared with the previous year.

Hosted aircraft in 12 months

The Daily options offered by Geneva Airpark involve the sheltering of business aircraft for very short, short and medium-term stopovers of between 0 and 3 hours, 3 and 8 hours, 8 and 24 hours or for longer periods.

Other figures showing a significant increase

341 sheltering days recorded by the end of September 2023, i.e., already 90% of the number of days recorded for the whole of 2022.

90%

+ 65% increase in Geneva Airpark's turnover over the first nine months of 2023 compared to the same period in 2022.

+ 65%

+ 30% increase in the size of aircraft accommodated. Geneva Airpark is also seeing strong demand for the sheltering of Bombardier Global 7500 and Gulfstream Aerospace G650 aircraft.

+ 30%
